Musical Theatre Teen Intensive: Spamalot, School Edition

FOR AGES 14–18
Director: Tami LoSasso
Assistant Director: David Otto
Musical Director: Debbie Miller
Choreographer:

Lovingly ripped off from the classic film comedy Monty Python and the Holy Grail, Monty Python's Spamalot retells the legend of King Arthur and his Knights of the Round Table, and features a bevy of beautiful show girls, not to mention cows, killer rabbits, and French people. The outrageous, uproarious, and gloriously entertaining story of King Arthur and the Lady of the Lake will delight audiences as they search for the Holy Grail and "always look on the bright side of life." This four week camp will encourage, inspire, challenge, and refine students at all levels as they come together as strangers and leave as family, all in the spirit of fun.

Participants work with the Arvada Center Production team—directors and choreographers—in an intensive study of dance, music, and acting. In addition to preparing the roles they will play, students will be immersed in, and learn about, the entire production process. As always, the goal of the Arvada Center Teen Intensive is to educate, promote growth, and provide an atmosphere where students can explore their own creativity, regardless of theatrical experience.

Auditions and Casting:
Mandatory auditions will be held Saturday, May 13 between 10:00am–4:00pm. All students are required to audition and roles will be cast by May 23. For the audition, students should prepare a one- to two-minute memorized monologue or reading as well as 16–24 bars of music (please bring an instrumental recording of your music). They should also bring dance shoes and be prepared to learn a simple dance combination. Students must sign up for an audition upon registration and audition time slots will be assigned at that time (call the Arvada Center Box Office at 720–898–7200 to register). Any student not able to make the audition date should send a video of themselves singing and acting to the Arvada Center and this should be received prior to the May audition. A: Parents are responsible for their child’s safe and timely arrival and departure. The Arvada Center requires all children age 12 and under to be escorted to and from studios and signed in and out of camps each day by a parent or other caregiver. Parents have the option of waiving the sign in and out requirements for their child by signing an authorization form on the first day of camps. The Participant Information and Medical Authorization (PIMA) form must be filled out for every student attending summer camp. Those forms are available for download on the summer camp webpage, and hard copies are available at our Box Office and in the studio at drop off on the first day of camp. Please Note: Any children not picked up within 10 minutes after a camp ends, will be supervised and charged a daily fee of $20 per child.

Q: What if my child has allergies, medical conditions or other special needs?
A: Be sure to fill out all relevant information on our Participant Information and Medical Care Authorization form and discuss any concerns with the camp instructor. If a child is injured, first aid will be administered, and 911 will be called in an emergency.

Q: Where do I go to view the summer camp art exhibition and when do I need to pick up my child’s artwork that is on display?
A: Throughout the summer, artwork from the Center’s visual art camps will be on display. Artwork is on display one week at a time and new artwork is installed on Friday of each week. Artwork from the previous week’s camps should be picked up no later than the following Thursday. Artwork not picked up within a week may be kept for a short time as storage space allows. Please call 720-898-7241 to retrieve artwork left for more than one week. All remaining artwork will become property of the Arvada Center and may be disposed of at the end of the summer. The Arvada Center is not responsible for any misplaced summer camp artwork.

Q: What should my child wear to summer camp?
A: We recommend that students wear comfortable clothes like shorts, t-shirts and sneakers. Some camps such as dance camps have a dress code and many visual arts camps recommend wearing old clothes and bringing a paint shirt. Please read individual camp descriptions carefully for required dress code information. Please label any removable clothing (jackets, sweaters, hats, etc.) with your child’s name. During camp, please check studios for lost items. At the end of each week, all lost and found items left in the studios are moved to the Box Office and any items not claimed by the end of summer are donated to a local charity. The Arvada Center is not responsible for any misplaced items.

Q: What if my child is sick or is unable to attend camp for another reason?
A: Any camper who is sick should stay home. If your child will miss camp due to illness, a phone call to 720-898-7241, is appreciated, but not required. Unfortunately, we cannot offer refunds for any missed days or make up projects your child may miss. If your child is unable to attend camp because they have COVID-19 symptoms or have been exposed to COVID-19, we will make exceptions to this policy. All campers are expected to be respectful of each other, camp staff, and Arvada Center equipment and facilities. The Arvada Center will not issue refunds for a child dismissed from a program because of unacceptable behavior.

Q: If I have questions or if I need to get a message to camp staff or my child, who should I call?
A: For general questions and to register for camps, please call our box office at 720-898-7200. The box office can also relay messages to camp staff or your child. For more specific information, please call 720-898-7236 or 720-898-7241.

The Power of Learning in the Arts

The summer camp program at the Arvada Center offers hundreds of different opportunities for children to explore their creativity. From their first stroke of a paintbrush to a debut performance on a stage, the arts allow children to explore our world through a colorful and vibrant lens.

Keeping with our long history, the Arvada Center is proud to offer a wide range of experiences that keep children engaged, even when not in school. With your support, we can continue to provide an enriching experience and create memories for a lifetime for children. If you are in a position to give, please consider making a gift today to ensure that many generations of children to come will experience the arts.
